NEWS AND COMMENT.

SCORE one for Governor LOWRY, of Mississippi, for his "cornet' on JOHN L.

THE contested election case for the Governorship of West Virginia is still hanging fire.

BROWER'S little boom for the speakership was "short and sweet" and has already collapsed.

INDIGNATION meetings are now the order of the day. "Lightning is striking" close to home, too.

ATLANTA invested $10,000 in fire works for the Piedmont Exposition to be held in Atlanta this fall.

COL. W. H. YARBOROUGH has been presented with a handsome diamond pin by his subordinate officers.

THE Salisbury Watchman is 57 years old, and stoutly holds its own among other North Carolina journals.

ANOTHER "strike" of 12,000 coke workers is "on" at Pittsburg, Pa. Protection! protection, thou art a jewel.

GRISSOM has either got to "bite the dust" or do worse. The people rule this country. Officers are their servants.

SUIT has been instituted against the South Fork Fishing Club, which owned the lake that flooded Johnstown.

MAKE a note of it, that North Carolina will have the grandest celebration in Fayetteville this fall the State has ever seen.

THEY say that RUSSELL HARRISON is looking for relatives in Europe; that the supply in this country has about exhausted.

THE Republicans have now joined in with the Democrats, denouncing the civil service as an "infernal nuisance law." It ought to go.

THE World's fair is to be held in New York city in 1892 to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus.

Business failures occurring throughout the country during last week number for the United States 191; for Canada 19. Total 210, against 216 last week.

THE new Commissioner of Internal revenue says that "blockading in North Carolina shall be stopped." We don't envy the new commissioner of his task.

At last accounts First Assistant Post Master General CLARKSON had scalped about 13,000 village Post Masters and the "good work continues."

W. C. ELAM, a native of Fayetteville, and the sharpest kind of a radical, has been appointed chief of the Division of Railroads in the general land office at Washington.

FOARAKER, that little fool who happened to be elected Governor of Ohio, and MURAT HALSTEAD are making faces at each other, over the Senatorship from the Buck Eye State.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL DAVIDSON has returned to Raleigh from a trip to Asheville, and says that phenomenally severe local rains have damaged crops considerably in the fertile valley of the French Broad and elsewhere in that region.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, the champion prize fighter of the World, was a distinguished guest at police headquarters in New York city last week, the requisition of Gov. LOWRY, of Mississippi, having been signed by Gov. HILL of the Empire State, which was quickly followed.

MR. W. C. WHITNEY telegraphs the New York World, from Lenox, Mass., that the report to the effect that he was a candidate for the Presidency in 1892 was a false cry; that he was not and would not be a candidate for the high office, but would help to elect the strongest man.

THE Messenger says "the Republican heads of departments in Washington are trying to disgust Democrats in office by reducing their compensation. In this way they hope to force them to resign, and thus avoid the notoriety of dismissal." But few die, be it remembered, and none resign.

MURAT HOLSTEAD has returned from his European tour and told a World reporter on his arrival in New York that he had a good "many old scores to settle." He says to be plain about it WILLIAM WALTER PHELPS was the cause of his failure to be confirmed and that he will afford amusement for somebody in the "Buck Eye State" this fall.

ACCORDING to the Washington correspondent of the Statesville Landmark, Gen. C. M. WILCOX is a native of Wayne county and is one of the 13 graduates of West Point that North Carolina furnished to the Confederate army; is closely related to Ex Attorney General GARLAND, and the GARLAND, HILLS and COOKS, of Durham, Franklin and adjacent counties.

A DEMOCRATIC POSTMASTER.

A Unique Publication Which Will Become Famous in History.

MT. CARMEL, ILL., June 7, '89.

To Hon. B. Harrison, President, &c:

SIR: By the grace of God and Grover Cleveland I am postmaster at Mt. Carmel. My official term will expire January 20, 1890. In addition to editing the mails of this city, I am also the editor of the Mt. Carmel Register, a live local, Democratic newspaper, established in 1839, and published at $1.25 a year, cash in advance, a discount of 20 per cent. to ministers and Presidents.

While the office has agreed with me, and I have, in the main, agreed with the office, and while I might reasonably entertain the hope of holding on for eight months longer, yet I feel it my duty to tender you my resignation.

Being a Democrat, I have preached that "to the victors belong the spoils." I feel disposed to practice that which I preach.

Your immediate predecessor hoped to build up his party by keeping the opposition in office. You are probably aware if you are at all familiar with the vocabulary of true and trite saying that his name is now Dennis.

I am moved further to tender you my resignation because of the anxiety of a barnyard full of patriots to succeed me, I believe that a tariff is a tax. They do not. Therefore they are of your own kith and kindred, and he who provides not for his own household is worse than an infidel. I am told that you are not built that way.

But to resume the thread of my discourse: The boys who are anxious to be my successor are very hungry; they have been feeding on shucks and icicles for four long weary years; the official calf is fat and they yearn to taste its tender joints. They fought (among themselves), bled (at the nose), and are willing to die for the G. O. P. When I asserted that you were the Chinaman's candidate, and ate rattail soup with chop-sticks, they swore by Dudley and Foster that it was a campaign canard, and threatened to detail blocks of of five to fry the fat out of me. Fortunately for me their threats were never carried into execution. They carried torches, drank with the coons, sang "Grandpa's hat will just fit Benny," and did divers and many foolish things, none of which would they have been guilty of doing had they not scented an aroma of postoffice on the crisp morning air. And the pæns of praise which they sounded when it became evident that you "had got there Eli," will never be a Sahara in my memory.

For these and other reasons, unnecessary to mention, I tender you my resignation, with the hope that my successor will be animated by a similar spirit in 1893. If he is, your Democratic successor will be spared the painful necessity of turning the rascal out."

I am very respectfully yours,
FRANK H. HAVILL, P. M.

N. B.—I would rather be right than be postmaster.

What is Beauty?

A young gentleman, describing a young girl to some of his friends, said that she was beautiful. They naturally expected to see some radiant creature with whom they would be instantly charmed. This, however was not the case, for they found the girl extremely plain, and a laugh was indulged in at the young man's expense.

But in a very short time his friends found that they had laughed too soon. The young lady was one of a large pleasure party which went off on a week's outing; and when the party returned, there was not one among them who did not think her beautiful. It was she who had responded most quickly to the requests of her elders, rendering sweet service in a charming way which can be better understood by the delighted recipient than by any pen-picture, however vivid. It was she who had run with gentle helpfulness to the rescue of every troubled child, she who had given up her seat to and older or a more wearied person with a tact not always shown even by kindly disposed persons. In fact, she had unostentatiously done the countlesaly loving acts which stamp the doer as a follower of the "One altogether lovely."

Mistakes.

It is not disgraceful to make a mistake. Those who never make mistakes never do anything worth mentioning. The atttitude of men with reference to their mistakes is sometimes disgraceful. One who cannot see his own errors even when they are pointed out will not make much improvement. Until we discovor and deplore our defects, we will not take pains to remedy them. Frankness in confessing faults is a great grace. When one becomes so perfect in his own estimation that he has no occasion to confess his faults to his neighbors, he is well nigh beyond the reach of hope. A Christian who believed his holiness had reached the point of foultlessness once gave way to a violent fit of temper, and when forced to apologize told his story well enough until he came to the conclusion, and then spoiled if by saying, "I cannot tell what made me use such longuage; I think I must have been inspired; I am sure I was not angry." "Who can understand his errors?"

Talk.

Ruskin.]

The power to converse well is a very great charm. You think anybody can talk. How mistaken you are! Anybody can chatter, anybody can exchange idle gossip. Anybody can recapitulate the troubles of the kitchen, the cost of the last new dress, and the probable doings of the neighbors. But to talk wisely, instinctively, freshly and delightfully is an immense accomplishment. It implies exertion, observation, study of books and people, and receptivity of impression. Plato banished the musicians from his feasts that the charms of conversation might have no interference; but in our later fashions many prefer music rather than the gossip of the hour, which often degenerates into trivialities wearisom and common-place.

Crop Prospects In the Lower End of the District.

[Wilmington Review, July 31st.]

Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, arrived here this morning and went down to Wrightsville to spend the day. In a brief interview he informed us that the crops are looking well in his section but that he fears the rains will injure the cotton. They have already hurt the fruit crop.

Don't disgust everybody by hawking, blowing and spitting, but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and be cured.

Training Daughters.

Exchange.]

There is a great difference in the ideas of what constitute a pleasant home. Here, for instance is a young girl surrounded by all the luxuries and privileges which money can procure. She has servants to come and go at her bidding. She has no care put upon her young shoulders, she is taught to play, sing, paint and embroider. To be sure, she does nothing for the pleasure and happiness of those around her, but what of that? She is accomplished, and is that not enough? When she is of suitable age she makes her debut in society. Then of course, her time is occupied with all the pleasures which society gives. Thus she grows into womanhood. Is this true womanhood? Is she now prepared to fight the battle of life and win the victor's crown? If adversity comes to her, as it is liable to come to us all, will she be prepared to meet it as she should? Ah, no! It would have been far better if she had been taught more of self-reliance and self-culture. Put some cares upon your daughter, it will do her no harm. It will make her feel that there is some responsibility resting upon her. Teach her that character is higher than intellect, and that by practicing a little self-denial once in a while she will not only make others happy but will increase her own happiness and will become less selfish. Teach her to work. Let us not be understood as being opposed to the teachings of the so-called higher accomplishments. I am not opposed to them, but do not think they should be taught to the detriment of the more useful ones. Make a companion of your daughter. Teach her to entertain as well as be entertained. In this way she will be made to think that she is really of some importance in the household.

Harrison's Kin Folks in Office.

Albany Times.]

President Harrison believes that "charity begins at home," as the following list of his relatives appointed to office will abundantly testify:

11. The President's son's father-in-law's niece's husband.
12. The President's brother in-law.
13. The private secretary's brother-in-law.
14. The Secretary of State's son.
15. The Secretary of State's nephew.
16. The Pension Commissioner's two daughters.
17. The Indian's Commissioner's wife.
18. The Indian School Superintendent's wife.

A Good Old Democrat.

Wilmington Review.]

An itemizer for the Review tells us of a sturdy old patriot he met on the W. & W. train, going out from the city a few days ago. He was 86 years old and said that it was the first time he had ever traveled on a railroad. He lost three sons in the late war, all, of course, in the Confederate ranks, and he is a cousin of John Grady, of Duplin county, the only man who was killed among the Whigs at the battle of Moore's Creek, February 27th, 1776. He has always voted the straight Democratic ticket, and no other and hopes to live long enough to vote for Grover Cleveland again in 1892. He left the train at Goldsboro and our informant neglected to give us his name.

[If he was a white man and from Duplin (God bless the dear old county, for within her borders live some of the best people beneath the skies,) that is all that is necessary to know whether or not he was a good Democrat. ED.]

A Good Name.

What is more valuable in any pursuit than a good name? It is often the keynote of success in your calling. It is worth ten times its cost to its possessor during life; and after death, what more precious legacy can be left for children? Besides, the value of a good name does not accrue to yourself and children alone. The whole community is benefitted thereby. Your noble traits of character remain as a stimulus to others, encouraging them to efforts of self improvement.

To a young man, ambitious of a position, of honor and profit in the business world, a good name is of the first importance. Without this, no one is wanted in any position of trust.

Did You Ever Notice It?

Look at any jeweler's dummy clock and you will see that the hands point to twenty minutes past 8 o'clock. We have often observed this, but never knew the reason until we read the Concord Standard. That paper says: "Did you ever notice that nearly all the false clock faces used as signs for jewelers have the hands pointing to the same figures? Well, it is a fact, and thereby hangs a tale. The time indicated by the hands is about twenty minutes after 8 o'clock, and this is said to have been the hour at which Abe Lincoln was shot. Hence its general use on the signs."

Woman's Sphere.

National Baptist.]

Woman's sphere is pre-eminently that of the home. The Bible and every day life teaches that in the home a woman's influence can and should be most truly felt. How much greater that influence, how much easier the fillings of her sphere, if she knows how to make home happy and bright! Homes cannot be happy and bright if order, thrift and providence is not felt there. Let the girls then be trained from the earliest age properly to do the household work, the "little things" which compose that work.

"Early to bed and early to rise Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise," says the olden time nursery rhyme, but we think that—

"Early to drink from the fountain of health
Will bring both the wisdom and much-longed for wealth," and that fountain is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the world-famed remedy for impurities of the blood. It cures Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Skin and Scalp diseases, Tetter, Salt rheum and all blood-taints.

Historic Newspaper Women.

Woman's News.]

EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.

The following interesting items have been gathered from the "History of Woman Suffrage":

Elizabeth Mallet established the first daily newspaper—The Daily Courant, in London, March, 1702.

Anna Franklin printed the first newspaper in Rhode Island, in 1732.

Anna K. Greene established the Maryland Gazette, the first paper in that colony, in 1767.

Mary K. Goddard, who published the Maryland Journal, for eight years, was noted for the fearlessness of her editorials—"only her sex saved her from a sound flogging." She was also the first postmaster after the Revolution, continuing in office eight years.

Clementine Reed, in 1772, at Williamsburg, started the Colonial Virginia Gazette. It was the first paper to publish the Declaration of Independence. A short-lived rival paper, in the interest of the crown, also called the Virginia Gazette, was started in the same city, in 1774 by Mrs. H. Boyle.

Mary Crouch, published a paper at Charleston, S. C., afterwards at Salem, Mass., the special purpose of which was opposition to the Stamp Act.

Penelope Russel, editor and printer of The Censor, Boston, 1771, set up her own editorials.

Mrs. Margaret Draper continued the Massachusetts Gazette and North Boston News Letter, when all other papers had suspended publication after Boston was besieged by the British.

Golden Moments.

How sorry one would be for a man who, starting out upon a journey, had his pockets full of golden coin, which one by one had slipped through the same unmended hole or rent, so that when he came to the end of his trip he had not one left, but lay down upon his bed a beggar. How strictly we would look to our pockets after hearing the tale, and make very sure that what coin we had should be well spent or carefully put away, and not scattered in the road-side dust. Yet we start upon our lives each one of us with a store of golden moments of which we keep little account. Rapidly they slip away through the rents of sloth or ignorance. Many a one, rich in all the golden moments of seventy years, lie down at last scarcely able to remember how he has frittered and scattered them, knowing only that he has no more—that he has purchased anything of use to himself or any one else with what might have bought so much.

Worth Remembering.

That the tongue is not steel yet it cuts. That cheerfulness is the weather of the heart. That sleep is the best stimulant, a nervine safe for all to take. That it is better to be able to say "no" than to be able to read Latin. That cold air is not necessarily pure, nor warm air necessarily impure. That a cheerful face is nearly as good for an invalid as healthy weather. That advice is like castor oil, easy enough to give but hard enough to take. That it is not enough to keep the poor in mind; give them something to keep you in mind. That life's real heroes and heroines are those who bear their own burdens bravely, and give a helping hand to those around them. That hasty words often rankle in the wound which injury gives, and that soft words assuage it; forgiving cures, and forgetting takes away the hurt.

How to Make Mother Happy.

Presbyterian.]

"Why mother, how bright and cheerful you look to-night! What has happened?

"I feel very happy, my dear because my little boy has really tried to be good all day.

Once when his sister teased him, and he spoke quick and cross to her, he turned round a moment after of his own accord and said he was wrong and asked her to forgive him. I believe I should grow young, and never be tired or unhappy again, if, every day, my little boy and girl were as thoughtful, unselfish, and loving as they have been to-day."

Here's a grand secret for you little one. And now that you know how to make mother happy, may you keep her face always full of happiness.

Good Nature.

Addison.]

Half the misery of human life might be extinguished would men alleviate the general curse they lie under, by mutual offices of compassion, benevolence, and humanity. There is nothing, therefore, which we ought more to encourage in ourselves and others than that disposition of mind which in our language goes under the title of good nature, and is more agreeable in conversation than wit, one gives a certain air to the countenance which is more amiable than beauty. It shows virtue in the fairest light, takes off in some measure from the deformity of vice, and makes even folly and impertinence supportable.

To Purify a Room.

Set a pitcher of water in the apartment and in a few hours it will have absorbed nearly all the respired gases in the room, the air of which will have become purer, but the water utterly filthy. The colder the water the greater the capacity to contain these gases. At the ordinary temperature a pail of water will absorb a pint of carbonic acid gas and several pints of ammonia. The capacity is nearly doubled by reducing the water to the temperature of ice. Hence the water kept in a room for a while is unfit for use.

Troubles.

He who has learned the secret or a happy life will bow his head before life's storms, but will gladly raise it again to welcome the returning sunlight. Many of the troubles men suffer are imaginary and born of their fears; many of them are trifles unworthy to dwell in thoughts; many more might be avoided by care on their own part; and very many contain within them the seeds of good to themselves, and benefit to others that could be produced in no other way

Labor.

Labor of any kind is performed in the best manner only by those who put their whole heart into its accomplishment. Their reward comes to them, not in the applause of an admiring crowd, but in the actual fulfillment of their endeavors, in the excellence of thir work, and in the new and progressive ideals that rise before them, ever beckoning them on to fresh conquests.

OBSERVER.

Established in 1825 by E. J. Hale, Sr.

Z. W. WHITEHEAD, Editor and Proprietor.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

THURSDAY.....AUGUST 8, 1889.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY OBSERVER.

On or about the 1st of September prox., the Weekly will be merged into the Semi-Weekly OBSERVER, for the purpose of aiding in the material advancement of a community so rapidly increasing in business importance and gaining that prominence in the commercial world to which its volume of business eminently entitles it.

The prominence of Fayetteville among the towns of North Carolina—its high status as a centre of intelligence and refinement, its varied mercantile and manufacturing interests, the prestige of dignity which its honored age confers—all render a more frequent publication of its chronicle of current events a necessity. To this pleasing but arduous task we shall address our best energies in future, feeling assured that if—as we hope to do—we put such painstaking labor to this new enterprise as shall make it merit success, the good people of this town and section will extend to us an enhanced measure of that liberal support with which they have already endorsed our efforts.

Those who are familiar with Fayetteville in her palmiest days, well remember the usefulness and influence of the Semi-Weekly OBSERVER, then under the guidance of that born journalist, Mr. E. J. Hale, Sr. If we can make the OBSERVER—in point of usefulness and importance—what it was in ye olden times—and there is no reason why not—its usefulness not only to Fayetteville, but to this entire section of the State, cannot be measured by dollars and cents.

In the editorial conduct of the paper we shall be assisted by that veteran journalist, orator and patriot, J. H. Myrover, Esq., one of the most gifted sons of the upper Cape Fear and a writer of elegance and ability.

DR. GRISSOM SHOULD GO.

In their demand for the removal of Dr. Grissom from the Asylum at Raleigh, the people have only expressed an inalienable right, and have asserted their manhood and told their representatives in language that admits of no misunderstanding that they disapprove the verdict. To deny them the right of protesting is to reduce them to a state of vassalage and rob them of one of the most precious rights bequeathed to them by the fathers of the Revolution.

We reiterate that Dr. Grissom should go. The Asylum is the property of the people and it now remains to be seen whether or not Gov. Fowle will have the backbone and manhood to show his hand. Nay to allow one lone Republican to bulldoze a Democratic State with a majority of 17,000 would be a crying shame, a disgrace to the State and a reproach upon the present administration. Gov. Fowle has more than once demonstrated his "grit" and we believe he can be counted on at the proper time.

THE STATE FARMERS ALLIANCE.

The State Farmers' Alliance of North Carolina will meet in annual session here next week. The gates of the Capital City of the upper Cape Fear stand ajar to the horney-handed sons of toil and the OBSERVER, on behalf of the people of Fayetteville, bids them a hearty welcome.

ISSUES OF THE DAY.

OUR READERS will bear in mind that the colored State emigration Convention which met in Raleigh last April appointed a committee to investigate the West and South-West country, and ascertain what arrangements could be made for the movement of a large body of colored people from this State who had evinced a desire to follow Horace Greely's advice and go West. The committee is to leave this week, and says that over seventy-eight thousand names of those who will move have been enrolled; and that these have agreed to be ready to start in forty-eight hours after notice has been given them, provided the commission makes a favorable report. It is said by the committee that the people in the South western States have held meetings composed of farmers, business-men and capitolists who have appointed committees to meet and confer with the North Carolina commissioners, and to offer such inducements as will direct the tide of immigration in that direction.

IN NOTHING could the people of North Carolina be more directly and pecuniarily interested than the crops, and the report for the month of July is of peculiar interest. Of the harvested crops, wheat is 93½, oats 91½. Of the crops now growing rice is put down as standing 91, corn 88½, cotton 81½, tobacco 83, peanuts 91, sweet potatoes 93, meadows and pastures 99, clover and grasses 100. The falling off as to corn, as compared with the June return of condition, is fifteen points, and this is due mainly to damage done in lowlands. The lowground crop is pretty nearly a failure. The decline in the condition of cotton is twelve points, while tobacco has retrograded eight points. Overflowing rains is the prime cause of the decline. This information has been received from the Agricultural Department at Raleigh from reports sent in by hundreds of correspondents from divers parts of the State, and are therefore valuable.

IN HIS zeal to perform some wonderful feat, by which he can render himself famous and conspicuous in history, John Wannamaker, has unluckily stirred up an enemy that brooks no interference and submits to no defeat, and has just crossed the last bridge in his opening fight with the Western Union Telegraph Company by ordering the payment of the Government telegraph bills suspended, pending the settlement of the discussion. Dr. Norvin Green, the President of the great telegraph monopoly, calmly announces that he will fight the Post Master General in the courts "till broad day light in the morning."

WHAT HAVE you to say, gentlemen, on the subject of a new Court House for Cumberland as called for in the grand jury's report, as published in the last issue of the OBSERVER? All in favor of a new Court House, say "I," or hold up your hand.

ONLY ELEVEN States elect State officers this year, Kentucky having elected a State Treasurer Tuesday. Elections in ten other States will take place on November 5th. On that day Iowa will elect Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

Maryland will elect Comptroller and Attorney General.

Massachusetts will elect Governor and State officers.

Nebraska will elect a Supreme Court Judge and two Regents.

New Jersey will elect Governor and State officers.

New York will elect all State officers, except Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

Ohio will elect Governor and State officers.

Pennsylvania will elect State Treasurer.

Virginia will elect Governor and State officers.

The following are included under the head of Lotteries in section 15, schedule B, of an act to "Raise Revenue," laws of 1889: "Every gift enterprise, or any person or establishment offering any article for sale and proposing to present purchasers with any gift or prize as an inducement to purchase, fifty dollars. On any lottery, whether known as a beneficial association, gift concert or otherwise, one thousand dollars; on every itinerant dealer in prize photographs, or prizes of any kind, one hundred dollars in each county in which the business is conducted.—Wilmington Review

All we have to say in regard to the enactment of such a fool law as the above is, that any man who will or would vote for such a bill should be tarred and feathered and run out of the country.

The Meeting at Wade Station.

Reported for the Observer.]

WADE STATION, July 29, 1889.—At a meeting of citizens of Cumberland county in the vicinity of Wade Station, Dr. H. A. McSwain was called to the chair and N. G. Wade appointed Secretary. The meeting assembled to ascertain the sentiments of our citizens relative to the charges against Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, and the finding of the Board of Directors in the case. Maj. Neill McDougald, N. G. Wade and I. O. Williams were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the views of the meeting, who reported the following which was unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, The Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum at Raleigh, N. C., have had under investigation charges of cruelty, immorality, and peculation against Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, and, whereas, in said investigation Dr. Crissom's own admission outside of evidence, furnishes strong proof of his guilt as to the charges of immorality, to say nothing of the clear and direct testimony against him on the charges of peculation and cruelty, and, whereas, the said Board of Directors have acquitted Dr. Grissom, contrary as we believe, to the facts in the case and despite the clear and convincing evidence of his guilt; therefore,

RESOLVED, That we enter this our solemn and indignant protest against the action of the Board of Directors, as calculated to subvert the ends of justice, to debase public morals and to lower the standard of female virtue.

RESOLVED, That as citizens of North Carolina, desiring to conserve her highest interest and zealous of her good name at home and abroad, we request the removal of Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum and of all other persons whether principals or subordinates, who have been directly or indirectly responsible for or participants in the nefarious practices shown by the investigation to have existed in the Insane Asylum, and we call upon the Governor; if he has power to do so, to remove from office all persons connected with the Asylum, who do not heartily aid him in removing this festering cankerous plague spot from the body politic. All papers endorsing above sentiments, please copy.

H. A. MCSWAIN, Chairman.
N. G. WADE, Secretary.

Rain! rain!! We farmers are all blue, for the continued rains are damaging the crops seriously, we fear.

Cholera is playing havoc among the hogs and poultry of this section. Foutz' Horse and Cattle Powder fed in soft feed twice per week, is said to be a most excellent preventive if not a cure.

A public road from this place to St. Paul's is now in progress.

Prof. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College attended services here last Sabbath, so also did Mr. Humphry of same section.

Mr. A. McGougan, of South Carolina, was on a visit to his old home at the same time.

Mrs. Beck Conley nee Miss Beck McNatt, greeted her old friends here this week.

Mr. E. R. Partridge, of Jonesboro, who has been one of the best and most successful farmers in Moore county, spent a short time here last week as guest of Mr. J. A. Monroe.

Mrs. Bella Lamont, who is socially and intellectually one of the first ladies in her county, will move here soon to place her children in school, and will bring with her 10 or 15 of her neighbors' children. She will take charge of the hotel building which is to be finished up in good style, and run it as a female boarding house in the interest of the school.

Mr. B. Blount, of Athens, has partially contracted for a lot, and will build and move his family here soon.

The Y. M. C. A. organized permanently last Friday night, electing Messrs. A. Shaw, President; J. D. Bass, Vice-President; J. A. Chason, Treasurer; A. G. Little, Secretary. No better selection could be made. SCRIBBLER.

Weather Crop Bulletin.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Crop Bulletin, published by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Signal Service, shows that there has been a large excess of rain fall, about an average temperature and very little sunshine during the week ending Friday, August 2nd. Seventy per cent. of the correspondents report the effects of the weather upon the crops as unfavorable. Tobacco appears to have suffered more than any other crop. Cotton has not done well. Fruit in some sections is rotting. Freshets have been of frequent occurrence. The highest freshet in the Yadkin river, in ten years, water 17 feet high at Hedrick's ferry, during the week. Normal weekly rainfall for the State for July is about 1.25 inches. Average for the present week 4 inches. Excess 3.75 inches.

In the Eastern District there was an excess of rainfall, about an average temperature and little sunshine, with an injurious effect upon all crops. The weekly average rainfall for this district was 2.63 inches, giving an excess of 1.38 inches.

In the Central District there was a marked excess of rainfall, with about an average temperature and very little sunshine, with quite an injurious effect upon the crops. Sixty-seven per cent. of the correspondents reporting unfavorably. The weekly rainfall was 4. 49 inches, giving an excess of 3.24 inches.

Sixty-four per cent. of the correspondents in the Western district report the effect of the weather upon the crops as injurious. The weekly rainfall in this district was 4.67 inches, giving an excess of 3.42 inches. The temperature was about the average, and there was very little sunshine.

Mr. Charlie Glover weighed a water melon yesterday for Mr. N. P. Clark that tipped the beam" at 52 lbs.

A new baggage car and three new freight and passenger engines for the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. arrived here yesterday.

Mr. W. R. Clark returned from Raleigh last Saturday, whither he had been to deliver two prisoners over to the penitentiary authorities.

Cape Fear Shingle Company at Little River Academy commenced operations this week, with a capacity of 40,000 shingles per day.

Thanks to Mr. J. Van Lindley, of the Pomona Hill Nurseries, for a complimentary ticket to the State Fruit Fair to be held in Winston Aug. 21st and 22nd.

We are requested to announce that members of the Alliance attending the annual meeting here next week will be entitled to special rates over the railroads and Cape Fear River Steamers.

Only seven deaths occurred in Fayetteville during the month of July. A death registry has been arranged for Fayetteville, and no one can be buried without a permit from the board of health.

Rev. G. W. Green, of Moravian Falls, formerly pastor of the Baptist church, will preach here next Sunday morning and night. The call for a pastor was postponed till the fourth Sunday in August.

Mr. Chas. J. Hedgepeth has accepted a position with the well-known grocery house of Capt. A. Garrason, where he will be glad to see and serve his old friends.

The work of rebuilding the blown out dams, the picking house &c., at the Fayetteville cotton mills is progressing nicely, and everything will be "right side up with care" soon.

Mr. John Geddie says he can beat any man in Cumberland county raising fine peaches and boy babies, that he has boys (twins) six months old, and each tips the beam at 25 pounds.

The enterprising firm of Young Bros. are adding 40 additional machines to their clothing factory. The OBSERVER is glad of the success which has attended the efforts of these worthy and enterprising young men.

Ten persons received the ordinance of Baptism at Judson church last Sunday, at the morning service which closed a revival meeting that has been going on at that place for the past week. In all, 18 new members were added to the church, of which eight were by certificates and letters.

Mr. B. F. Moore committed suicide on Sunday night, the 27th, at Alfordsville by cutting his throat with a razor. His room mate, Mr. Norman McRae, entered the room some time after Moore had retired, and was not aware that death had visited the room until he awoke next morning. The deceased is a native of Randolph.

Our little friends, Willie and Henry Thornton, nephew and son of our townsman, Frank W. Thornton, Esq., will leave for Oak Ridge Institute, Guilford county, on Monday, to enter school. Others will likely accompany them from this place. This celebrated school, under the management of the Holt Bros., is just entering upon its most auspicious year, we are glad to learn. Oak Ridge Institute advertises in the OBSERVER, which accounts for the above.

From Little River.

Mr. J. T. McNeill, of Little River township, was in to see us Tuesday, and tells us the rain storm in that section last Monday afternoon was terrific. Chimneys were blown down and houses swayed, and the water courses are higher than ever known before.

Moore Court.

THE OBSERVER will be represented at Moore Court next week, and we confidently expect the addition of several new weekly and semi-weekly subscribers to our rapidly rising list. Fall in! everbody, and help us to give the public such a newspaper as you have not seen for many years.

A Venerable Age.

Mr. Beverly Rose, of this place, is on the eve of his 96th birth-day, as to-morrow he will be 95 years old. He was born Aug. 9th, 1794. He is still in perfect health and is vigorous and active, having the possession, in a wonderful degree, of all his faculties. He is daily to be seen upon our streets, and his step is almost as rapid and firm as that of a young man.

He is a native of Person county. He came to Fayetteville about 1813—during the war with Great Britain. He has lived under every President the United States has had. He was for many years an officer in the old United States Bank, and after it was abolished he became a merchant. He has shipped cotton from Fayetteville to Philadelphia by wagon! What changes have come about during his life time!

A friend in a distant State, writing him a letter of congratulation, uses the following language:

"On the 9th of Aug., 1794, you were born. What a wonderful history does this period cover. How great and astonishing has been the growth of our country. Then only 13 States, just out of a protracted war for their existence, now 42 States stretching from ocean to ocean. Then thirteen millions of population, now over sixty millions. Truly God has permitted you to witness the greatest wonder of all history—the rapid and amazing development of the greatest nation upon earth. When you were born, this Republic then in its infancy, was the laughing stock of all Europe; but now it challenges the admiration of the world."

In common with his hundreds and thousands of admiring friends and acquaintances all over this broad land of ours, let us indulge in the hope that this venerable and much loved citizen of historic Fayetteville may yet live to enjoy additional years of quietude and happiness, and that in the evening of life it shall yet be light with him.

Mr. W. P. Fife.

Mr. W. P. Fife is at home for a few days recreation from his revival work in Robeson. We are glad to learn that the Lord is so abundantly blessing his efforts as an evangelist. During the last six weeks there have been 1,040 conversions made under his preaching, including backsliders reclaimed. Of this number 240 were made at the meeting which has just closed in Lumberton. May the Lord continue to bless him.

We are told that if he would accept them, that Mr. Fife has calls from different places in this State sufficient to occupy his time till Feruary, 1890. Besides this he has, within the past few days, been called to Arkansas, as State Evangelist of the Y. M. C. A. for the State with a stated salary. He will leave in a few days for Whiteville, Columbus county.

Mr. Walter Watson and Family at the Sea Coast.

Mr. Walter Watson and family are sojourning awhile at the sea coast. The Wilmington Star of last Saturday says: "Mr. Walter Watson, one of Fayetteville's most enterprising citizens, and President of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society, was a visitor at the Star office yesterday. His subscription to the Star dates from its first issue, and he has been a constant reader of the paper ever since. Mr. Watson has rented a cottage at Carolina Beach where his family will remain a month or more." Our neighbor, the Star, is correct. Mr. Watson is a great favorite with our people, who wish him a pleasant stay at the seashore.

An Outlaw Captured.

W. H. Gautier, a most daring outlaw, who has made himself a terror to the people at and around Wade Station of late, was arrested by Sheriff Fisher and possee last Sunday morning, about daylight, seven miles from Wade on Black River and landed in jail here about 12 o'clock Sunday.

Gautier is charged with having forced an entrance into the private residence of a Mr. Fann near Wade, a few nights since, shooting Mrs. Fann and committing other depredations of an unlawful character. He will be given a hearing before a J. P. here next Tuesday, and something new will doubtless be disclosed.

Business Meeting Y. M. C. A.

A business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in their hall opposite Hotel LaFayette Friday night at 8:30 o'clock. Every member is urgently requested to attend this meeting. The committee on gymnasium, Messrs. McKethan, McNeill and Thomson will be prepared to render a definite report, &c. The Secretary, Mr. G. G. Harley, has already arrived, and will be present at the meeting and offer such advice as will interest and concern the members individually and collectively.

False Rumor.

We are in receipt of a personal letter from Rev. J. M. Clarke, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Red Springs, in which he says the rumor that there are from twenty to twenty-five cases of typhoid fever at that place is false. He adds that the healthfulness of the town at present is very good.

Washouts.

Since our last issue the county and Railroad bridges of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. over Town Fork creek near Walnut Cove, have been washed away, entailing considerable loss. The work of repairing the damage to the railroad goes right along.

All the Way from Florida.

Mr. Womble, the clever manager of the Fayetteville Marble Works, informs us that he has just received an order for a monument to go to Fernandina, Fla. That's the way Fayetteville houses do business.

Called Meeting

A called meeting of the Centennial Committees is called for Monday, August 12th, at 4 P. M. A full attendance is desired to meet at the Town Hall.

A. B. WILLIAMS, Ch'n.

Union Sunday School Picnic.

With all reverence, we congratulate the participants in yesterday's festive occasion upon the benignity with which Providence wreathed nature's face with smiles, after a long period of storm and lowering clouds.

The day was most auspicious—a sky of unsullied blue, with a balmy, genial atmosphere. At 10 o'clock the Cumberland County Sunday School Association was brought to order in the Tabernacle by calling Mr. James M. Lamb to the chair as President of the Convention, and the appointment of Mr. Graham as Secretary. After devotional exercises with prayer by Rev. Joseph Wheeler, accompanied by pleasant and soul-stirring music, the address of welcome was delivered by Mr. H. L. Cook—a very happy effort, graceful in delivery, chaste in expression, beautiful in diction; the true eloquence of pure feeling. The response, in behalf of the visitors, by Mr. G. T. Adams, was worthy of the happy occasion—a beautiful tribute to the open-handed hospitplity and unstinted generosity of the people of Fayetteville.

"Discipline in the Sunday School," by Capt. Wm. Black, of Maxton, was a very excellent address, characterized by good sense and skilful treatment of the subject matter of the discourse.

Rev. T. P. Barclay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is never commonplace; his audience may always count on originality, whether in the pulpit or on the rostrum—and his address on "Sunday School Music" was exceptionally fine.

Dinner, al fresco, in the Presbyterian church yard, delightfully filled the hour of adjournment—and the expectant guests, and was a veritable chef d'oeuvre of the skill and taste of Cumberland and Fayetteville housewives.

The afternoon exercises were necessarily abridged from the want of time, and the visiting schools commenced to take their departure by train and private conveyances at a little after three o'clock. There were present, of Sunday school pupils and workers, about 1,200. Many from different parts of the county were unable to attend on account of the almost impassable condition of the roads; but, with those who were so fortunate as to be present, it was pronounced a day of unalloyed enjoyment.

To Mr. Geo. P. McNeill, President of the Cumberland County Sunday School Association—aggressive and indefatigable in all good work—the success of the Union Picnic is to be attributed more, perhaps, than to any other one person; and he had very willing and efficient coadjutors in Messrs. Lamb and Winburn.

Proceedings County Commissioners Court.

Upon the assembling of the Board here last Monday the minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

It was then ordered that M. A. Gillis be authorized to let bridge on Nicholson Creek out to the lowest bidder; that Sterling's be referred to K. J. Rhodes; that Red Hill Road in Carver's Creek Township petition be refiled and advertised.

S. C. Rankin tendered his resignation as member of the Board of Education, whereupon N. A. Sinclair was elected in his stead.

It was further ordered that the Sheriff be instructed to hire out Cheshire Kelly and Henry Waddill at his discretion to secure cost; that Mr. W. W. Huske be relieved of tax on $270, on account of over valuation of property.

The County Treasurer presented his monthly report, which was ordered filed.

Charges were made and brought to the attention of the Board that John Smith, a constable for Cross Creek township, resided outside said township, whereupon the Board decided to continue the case over till next monthly meeting, in order that sufficient evidence be adduced to sustain the charges.

After auditing the monthly accounts, &c., the Board adjourned to meet on the first Monday in September.

Union Sunday School Picnic.

The Camp Ground, McPherson Highland Grove and Central Union Sunday Schools will hold a union picnic at the Camp Ground Methodist church, 1 mile South of Morgantou road, 6 miles from Fayetteville, August 14th. All Sunday School workers are invited to be present.

The committee of arrangements have prepared the following programme:

10:00, Prayer and Praise Service.
10:30, Words of welcome by John McDuffie, Esq.
10:45, Responsive words by C. H. Graham, Esq.
11:00, Music.
Address by T. H. Sutton, Esq.
Music.
Recess for dinner.
2:30 Praise Service.
Address by H. L. Cook.
Music.
Address by John G. Shaw.
Music.
Benediction.

The committee will accept our thanks for an invitation to be present. We shall endeavor to be there and meet face to face the patriotic sons and daughters of "old 71st."

Some Interesting Figures.

One of our worthy citizens handed us the following a few days ago which puts the thing in a nut-shell. There are produced in Cumberland county annually:

282,423 bushels of corn,
13,791 " oats,
4,342 " rye,
7,794 " wheat,
3,905 bales of cotton.

Of this only $153,781 worth is sold on the market. The county must produce, or fall short:

290,000 bushels of corn,
30,000 " wheat,
20,000 " oats,
10,000 " rye,

for food supplies.

We should then have at least $350,000 worth of cash-producing crop to furnish shoes, clothing, medicine, etc. We can do it by work.

Correction.

In our last issue we stated that an order had been made for the survey of the Fayetteville & Albemarle R. R., from Fayetteville to some point on the Sea Board Air Line, whereas, it should have read from Fayetteville to some point on the Raleigh & Augusta Railroad in the direction of Fayetteville. The survey will be made by Mr. D. G. McDuffie. Civil Engineer, instead of John McDuffie.

A Generous Fayettevillian.

The following has been handed us and we take the liberty of publishing same:

Among those who have aided the sufferers from the Johnstown flood, and whose work has thus far escaped the public notice, are F. L. Deming and W. W. Doughty of this city. Soon after the news of the disaster, they began to collect money and goods for the sufferers and on Friday night, just one week after the first news of the calamity, they started for Johnstown with $500 worth of contributions. At first they were stopped when they reached Rockland, but procured permission from Gen. Hastings and went to the stricken city on the Governor's special train. Mr. G. A. Young, formerly of this city, and who had everything swept away, says the first words of cheer he heard were from Mr. Deming, who, after doing all he could to relieve the sufferers, returned to this city and with the assistance of friends, refurnished Mr. Young's house.—Wil. Del. News.

Mr. Deming is a native of this place where he has relatives, and is personally known to many readers of the OBSERVER.

Personal Pencilings.

Glad to see Mr. R. T. Gray, of Raleigh, on our streets this week.

Mrs. A. A. McKethan and children are visiting relatives in Bladen.

Gen. A. G. Brady has gone on a visit to his old home in Connecticut.

Prof. Martin Holt, of Oak Ridge Institute, made a flying trip to this city Monday, returning to Greensboro Tuesday.

The Asheville Citizen of last week announced the arrival of Mr. Warren Prior, of this city at the Swannanoa Hotel of that place.

Judge Buxton, Capt. Neill W. Ray and Mr. H. McD. Robinson are attending Harnett Court this week.

Mr. H. R. Horne and family left on the steamer Murchison Monday for that most pleasant and delightful of all resorts, Carolina Beach.

Mr. Alfred McKethan has gone on to Annapolis to enter the preparatory school with a view to standing his examination as a cadet.

Mr. W. G. Hall, new deputy collector of Maxton, has been here since Monday, arranging his matters preparatory to entering upon his crusade.

Prof. R. Munroe, of the Asheville Graded Schools, is on a visit to his friends and relatives in Cumberland. He is a picture of health, and the land of the sky evidently agrees with him. We wish him a pleasant visit to the scenes of bye gone days.

The Late Chas. F. McArthur.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you allow me space for a few words in memory of a dear friend, Charles Franklin McArthur, the announcement of whose death a few weeks ago filled many hearts with sorrow. All that loving hands and medical skill could do was of no avail and after one week of severe illness he passed calmly and peacefully away. Truly death loves a shining mark.

Rarely do we see combined in one character and exhibited in one life such an assemblage of virtues.

Possessed as he was of a mind clear and logical, of a physical constitution sound and vigorous, of a disposition amiable and generous, pure in language and remarkably free from the common faults of mankind, we could but predict for him a life of honor and usefulness. But—

"Death leaves our hearts all desolate.
He plucks our fairest sweetest flowers."

Of a modest retiring disposition his real worth was fully appreciated only by those who knew him well.

The world has indeed been made brighter by his having lived in it and though all that was mortal has been laid to rest his noble example still lives as a guide for those who come after him. For———"Ever near us though unseen,

The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life—there is no dead." M.

Red Springs.

Reported for the Observer.]

Your correspondent gives you what has come under his eye in passing through.

Miss Flora Muse, of Carthage, N. C., who for some time has been visiting her sister. Mrs. Jones of Red Springs, passed away about six o'clock Sunday afternoon. She had been quite ill with typhoid fever for several days, and in her last moments of consciousness, expressed herself as resigned to the will of Him who does all things for the best.

The Red Springs' town authorities as well as some of the private citizens, are actively putting the town in good draining order. We hope they will not forget to use lime freely.

Good drainage and a new hotel would make Red Springs one of most desirable watering places in the State.

We have heard that the Springs property, containing about 58 acres, is held at $8,000. Why does not some enterprising man take hold of it and make a first-class resort of it?

The saw mills in this vicinity, of which there are about seventeen, are all as busy as they can be, in fact some are turning off orders.

Rain, rain, rain! We hope you have had a plenty of it; if not, come down and get some, and some good mineral water too.

DIED.

HALL.—At his home in Gray's Creek, Aug. 5th, 1889, Mr. NATHAN HALL, aged about 75 years. The deceased was a strict member of the Baptist church of the "old school," and by his demise Cumberland county loses a staunch old citizen, highly respected by all who knew him for his high sense of honesty and integrity and usefulness in the community in which he had so long resided. The deceased leaves several children and many warm friends to mourn his death.

TRUE HEROISM.

Let others write of battles fought,
  Of bloody, ghastly fields,
Where honor greets the man who wins,
  And death the man who yields;
But I will write of him who fights
  And vanishes his sins,
Who struggles on through weary years
  Against himself, and wins.

He is a hero staunch and brave
  Who fights an unseen foe,
And puts at last beneath his feet
  His passions base and low;
Who stands erect in manhood's might
  Undaunted, undismayed—
The bravest man who drew a sword
  In foray or in raid.

It calls for something more than brawn
  Or muscle to o'ercome
An enemy who mareheth not
  With banner, plume, and drum—
A foe forever lurking nigh,
  With silent, stealthy tread;
Forever near your board by day,
  At night beside your bed.

All honor, then, to that brave heart!
  Though poor or rich he be,
Who struggles with his better part—
  Who conquers and is free.
He may not wear a hero's crown,
  Or fill a hero's grave,
But truth will place his name among
  The bravest of the brave.

A Gala Day at Raeford.

Reported for the Observer.]

The 24th of July will long be remembered by the people of this section as a day fraught with as much or more enjoyment than many or any of its predecessors, for years agone. The occasion was a picnic given by the Elwood Triagon Club and Music Academy. Early in the day—beautiful and balmy—from North, South, East and West, could be seen vehicles of every discription, some with hurried movements and others with philosophic deliberation approaching the beautiful and picturesque grounds of the club. By ten o'clock nearly every tree of the classic grove had an equine appendage, and a crowd of Cumberland's, Robeson's and Richmond's fairest daughters and stalwart sons had taken their seats to witness and enjoy the lofty flights of eloquence from cultivated brains and thoroughly drilled tongues.

When everything had been quieted by the efficient and gentlemanly marshals and expectation was at fever heat, Jno. W. McLauchlin, Esq., the young bachelor eloquent (take note O ye fair ones) took the stand and in his peculiar and happy style, announced the order of the day, viz: addresses by D. A. Lamont, Jr., N. R. McNeill and Prof. T. Jeff, Johnson, interspersed with music by the musical department of the club (pupils of Prof. Johnson) then recess for dinner (and such a dinner! your correspondent has never seen before on any occasion, such elaborate preparations. There were between three and five hundred people on the grounds. All had enough, and lo there were many baskets full taken back to the homes of the big-hearted, generous contributors.)

The first address by D. A. Lamont, Jr., (his debut) was one of great interest and excellence and well arranged. His subject: "The Old North State," was handled with a masterful hand.

Next in routine, N. R. McNeill, Esq., was received amid thunders of applause. "Our Country," was thoroughly analyzed, dissected, re-built and eulogised. Mr. McNeill has a fair share of declamatory talent and made a very favorable impression.

Of the address of Prof. Johnson, the valedictorian, we can simply say, 'twas in keeping with his many efforts of the kind in the "days agone."

The afternoon was devoted to a match game between separate detachments of the battery, music, promanading the beautiful walks of the club grounds and pleasant converse. At six o'clock Prof. Johnson assembled his class, presented each one with a handsome prize, tendered some timely admonitions to both young and old and rung down the curtain.

Thus dawned, wore away, and ended one of the brightest, most pleasant and instructive days we have ever spent. Not a single cloud obscured the sun; not a single jar or discord to mar the sweet harmony of the dense concourse; no sad faces were seen, no wails of lamentation were heard; all, all were bright-hearted, joyous, happy.

We tender our congratulations and thanks, with a hearty God bless the people of Elwood.

This section has been blessed with delightful showers for the past two or three weeks, and the hearts of the horny-handed knights of the plow and harrow look forward to a plentiful crop. Old 71st is booming towards a thoroughly scientific system of farming, and will ere long claim precedence over any other portion of our grand old county.

We sincerely regret the absence of the genial face of the Observer, the sparkling wit of our good friend, Ed. Fuller, and the solid critieisms and honest encomiums of our friend Lilly Love; but we can't have things just as we wish them. We do think a little hard of our esteemed fellow-citizens Dunc Gillis and Duncan Shaw, whose profund judgment and sage advice iv always apropos.

Come among us and bring ever so many extra copies of the good old Whig textbook, and we guarantee a warm reception and a good time. SIGMA.

Raeford, N. C., July 27, 1889.

Kitchen Wrinkles.

Try using sweet skimmed milk instead of starch for calicoes and ginghams.

If poisoned by ivy bathe the affected parts freely three times a day with sweet spirits of nitre.

Rub window glass with a piece of soft linen wet with vinegar, then with a dry cloth, and it will be beautifully clear.

To make glue that is very good dissolve the gum to be found on cherry trees in water. Keep water on it all the time, and it is always ready for use.

To clean the silver spoons and forks in every-day use rub them with a damp cloth dipped in baking soda, then polish them with a little piece of chamois skin.

Cut the thin skin from the outside of the leg of mutton, or the mutton crop, before cooking them, and you will not have the woolly taste that so many complain of.

Rub salt on the inside of your coffee pot when you wash it out, and it will remove the coffee and egg very quickly. Be sure to rinse it thoroughly before using it again.

Old lamp burners should be boiled often in strong saleratus water. Let them boil about an hour, polish them, and they will be as good as new, and will not trouble you by causing a smoky light.

To take letters from a flour sack, first dip the sack in cold water, and let it soak fifteen minutes; then soap it well, let it soak a little longer, and when it has been washed through one water, it is ready to be put through with the other clothes.

Pay Up!

A Western editor rises to remark: You may hi be the stars in a nail keg, hang the ocean on a rail fence to dry, put the sky to sleep in a gourd, unbuckle the belly band of eternity and let the sun and moon out, but don't think you can escape the place that lies on the other side of purgatory if you don't pay for your paper.

Farm Notes.

Push the haying.

Sow a good patch of turnips.

That the man who stirs his cup with an icicle spoils the tea and chills his own fingers.

Keep the calves growing, by this time they will eat considerable grass if they can be given the run of a good pasture.

That an ill assorted marriage is the sepulchre of the heart haunted by the ghost of past affection and hopes gone forever.

In a majority of cases the best time to sell is when the products are ready. Holding for higher prices savors of speculation.

Keep account of what you sell and the prices that you receive. Know the cost of what it brings and the amount of profit received.

One advantage in raising a diversity of crops and keeping a variety of stock is that the work is evenly distributed throughout the year.

So far as tried ensilage is highly recommended for keeping up the fertility of the soil and this of itself is often quite an important item.

In no line of farming is it of more importance to feed well and judiciously as with milk cows, if the largest amount of profit is derived.

Women Who Make the Best Wives.

Members of a Boston debating society have almost come to blows over the question, "What women make the best wives"? Culture was claimed by many to be the first essential, love and fidelity the second, and knowledge of household duties and ability to properly perform them, the third. None of the debaters, however, thought to add that very necessary qualification—health—without which a wife is far from perfection. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will renew the hue of youth in pale and sallow cheeks, correct irritating uterine diseases, arrest and cure ulceration and inflammation, and infuse new vitality into a wasting body. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

CHOWAN
Baptist Female Institute,
MURFREESBORO, N. C.
Attention is called to the following facts:
FIRST. Only experienced teachers who have had special preparation for their work are placed in charge of the different departments, consequently the high grade of scholarship in all the departments.
SECOND. The location was selected in preference to many others because of the reputation of Murfreesboro for health, and the beauty of the situation. A recent visitor pronounces it the most beautiful spot he has seen in North Carolina.
THIRD. The health record of the young ladies is very gratifying. For years the average of doctor's bills has been only twenty-five cents per capita. During the last session, there was no case of sickness so serious as to need the presence of a physician.
FOURTH. Before the opening of the fall term, ten new rooms will be added and the dormitories will be furnished and carpeted. Only two young ladies will occupy the same room.
FIFTH. If a class of ten can be secured, arrangements have been made to have young ladies instructed in telegraphy and type-writing at a moderate cost.
SIXTH. The charges are as moderate as they can be made for the advantages offered. For these charges please see catalogue.
SEVENTH. Murfreesboro is seven miles from Conway, a station on the Roanoke and Tar River Railroad, which is a branch of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad. A line of hacks connect the two places. It is fourteen miles from Norfolk and Carolina Railroad with which it will be connected by steamers so soon as the road is completed to the Chowan River which will be about August 15th. This route will open up all Eastern Carolina, making the Institute most accessable to parties on all lines of road connecting with the Norfolk and Carolina Road.
